Guanajuato

The prototype of the undead world comes from a city in Mexico called Guanajuato. The biggest feature of this city is the colorful houses all over the mountains and plains.

Tamal

Tamal is a traditional Mexican food, much like Chinese rice dumplings. It is made by wrapping cornmeal with banana leaves, and is usually filled with meat or salad.

Papel picado

Papel picado is a Mexican paper cut, generally used for rituals and festivals. It not only has the shape of a skeleton, but also the sun, corns, flowers, birds, snakes, etc.

Día de Muertos

Día de Muertos is Mexico's Day of the Dead, similar to Halloween in the West. On this day, the whole family get together to commemorate the departed relatives.

The real death is that no one in the world remembers you.
